Certification Application - CIT Regional Program - Regional Program Name

Depth of Program

CIT programs have three significant responsibilities: developing community collaboration, often using a CIT Steering Committee; transforming a community’s crisis response system that integrates several components to provide easy access to crisis care in the least intrusive manner; and training.

ON-GOING MULTI-DISCIPLINARY CIT COMMITTEE - A CIT regional program could involve a steering committee, workgroup, or some other formal body that oversees the program and looks for opportunities to further develop community crisis response services. This committee can include members representing the law enforcement agencies, behavioral healthcare services, advocates, and persons with lived experience.

Does your program have an on-going committee that oversees the program?

- [ ] Yes
- [ ] No

Comments:
INTEGRATED CRISIS RESPONSE SYSTEM - An integrated crisis response system is one that incorporates various levels of response or services for people in crisis. An integrated crisis response system goes beyond the standard police response of law enforcement evaluation and provides alternate ways for individuals to get help in a crisis.

Does your crisis response system include components other than the standard police response?

- Yes
- No

Comments:

TRAINING - A CIT regional program conducts 40-hour CIT trainings and may conduct various other training such as de-escalation training, mental health awareness training, etc.

Does your program conduct CIT training, de-escalation training, mental health awareness training, or any other training that would be associated with crisis response?

- Yes
